

Southern California Association of Fingerprint Officers

19th Annual Forensic Training Seminar

August 6-7, 2010

0800-1700

Ontario, California

The Scientific Foundation that Allows Friction Ridge Individualization: Responding to Current Challenges and Criticisms

Confirmed Speakers

John R. Vanderkolk

*Standardization, Training &
Professionalization*
Author of the textbook: Forensic Comparative Science
Manager of the Indiana State Police Crime Lab

Henry J. Swofford

Forensic Scientist, United States Army Crime Lab
Author of: The Ontogeny of the Friction Ridge: A Unified Explanation of the Epidermal Ridge Development with Descriptive Detail of Individuality

Kenneth Moses

Forensic Consultant, Retired Inspector/Supervisor of the Crime Scene, Latent Print Section, San Francisco Police Department

William Leo

Author of the textbook: Fingerprint Identification
L.A.S.D Latent Print Examiner Training Program Coordinator

Plus a Special Presentation By

Lynne Herold, PhD

Senior Criminalist, Los Angeles Sheriff's Department
The People v. Phillip Spector: Perspectives on the evidence, the trial, and Credibility

Hilton Ontario Airport
700 N. Haven Avenue
Ontario, California 91764
Special Room Rate of $84.00 per night
For more info see www.scafo.org